More than 600 Southern Baptist Churches in California will be participating in the annual revival series.

Services will be held every evening at 7:30. Congregational singing led by the pastor and special music will feature every service.

The services, open to the public, will continue through March 27.

Villian, Heroine Sought For 'The Perils of Fanny'

The Footlight Theater of Torrance will present an old-time melodrama sometime in September of this year, slated to be one of the highlights of the activities of the Torrance Little Theater for this season.

At the present time a search for talent is being conducted. The presentation of a melodrama is composed of two separate activities; the play and the vaudeville or olio. The play will be "The Perils of Fanny." There are seven characters in "The Perils of Fanny"—the hero, the hero's mother, the heroine, the heroine's mother, the hag, little Willie, and the villain.

At present auditions are being held to fill the cast. "The Perils of Fanny" is complete with a villain whose heart is black as coal, a hero whose ideals are pure and innocent as a brand new baby, and a heroine whose ambitions and desires are purer than the driven snow, the heroine's mother who is trying to save the farm, the hero's mother who is struggling against the odds of a hard, cruel world, the hag who carries a deep, dark secret, and frail little Willie who brings in a very surprising ending.

NO MELODRAMA is complete without the olio acts. Backers are seeking the type of vaudeville acts that will conform to the pattern of this type of entertainment: the ever popular soft shoe dancers are always a favorite of this type of entertainment; the Can-Can dancers are also ever popular, and essential, and without question, a barber shop quartet.

"We can also incorporate tap dancers, musicians, Charleston dancers, humorous and timely skits, monologues, etc.," Director Louis J. Verne says. Suggestions and help will be welcome. The melodrama itself, "The Perils of Fanny," has a running time of about one hour, allowing ample time for the presentation of olio.

FOOTLIGHT THEATER is a community theater. Its entire object is to afford the interested citizens of the area an opportunity to express themselves and to participate in cultural activities of the Torrance Little Theater group.

There will be four meetings for readings and auditions. They will be held on Monday, March 21, and Tuesday, March 22, Monday, March 28 and Tuesday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. at 18000 Prairie Ave. Anyone interested in auditioning for a part in the melodrama or the olio or anyone who has a suitable act, dance or skit must attend one of the meetings in order to be considered.

Further information on this matter can be acquired by contacting Verne at FR 9-8963 or Robert Taylor, theater manager at DA 4-8358.
